

Meridian Travel Single-Trip Policy

Policy Wording v1.4 · Sample document for testing only

Section 1 — Policy Period and Eligibility

- 1.1 Cover applies to one return trip commencing and ending in the policyholder's country of residence, with a maximum trip duration of 45 days.
- 1.2 The policyholder must be under 70 years of age at the date of purchase and must purchase the policy before departure.
- 1.3 Policy numbers for this product are in the format TR-XXXXXXX (e.g. TR-3310582).
- 1.4 Cancellation cover begins on the date the policy is purchased; all other sections begin on the departure date shown on the schedule.

Section 2 — Covered Events

- 2.1 Cancellation or curtailment of the trip due to the death, serious injury or serious illness of the policyholder, a travelling companion or a close relative.
- 2.2 Emergency medical and dental treatment received abroad for an illness or injury first occurring during the trip.
- 2.3 Emergency repatriation to the country of residence when medically necessary and approved by the 24-hour assistance line.
- 2.4 Loss, theft or damage of personal baggage and personal money while on the trip.
- 2.5 Delayed baggage: essential replacement items where checked baggage is delayed more than 12 hours on the outward journey.
- 2.6 Missed departure due to the failure of scheduled public transport or a road accident on the way to the departure point.
- 2.7 Travel delay of more than 12 hours to the first outward or final return departure caused by strike, adverse weather or mechanical breakdown of the carrier.

Section 3 — Exclusions

- 3.1 Any pre-existing medical condition not declared to and accepted in writing by the insurer before the policy was issued.
- 3.2 Claims arising from travel against the advice of a medical practitioner, or where the purpose of the trip is to obtain medical treatment.
- 3.3 Claims arising from the policyholder being under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
- 3.4 Winter sports, scuba diving below 30 metres, mountaineering requiring ropes, and motorcycling over 125cc, unless the Adventure Activities extension is shown on the schedule.
- 3.5 Baggage or money left unattended, left in a vehicle overnight, or left in a public place.
- 3.6 Valuables carried in checked baggage.
- 3.7 Cancellation caused by a change of mind, disinclination to travel or financial circumstances other than redundancy.
- 3.8 Travel to any country or region against which the government of the country of residence has advised against all travel.

3.9 Any claim where the incident occurred before the trip departure date (other than cancellation) or after the trip return date.

Section 4 — Deductible (Excess)

4.1 An excess of 75 applies per person per incident under the cancellation, medical and baggage sections.

4.2 No excess applies to travel delay, missed departure or delayed baggage benefits.

4.3 Where the Excess Waiver extension is shown on the schedule, no excess applies to any section.

Section 5 — Limits and Sub-limits

5.1 Cancellation or curtailment: up to 5,000 per person.

5.2 Emergency medical expenses abroad: up to 2,000,000 per person, including repatriation.

5.3 Emergency dental treatment for pain relief only: sub-limit 350 per person.

5.4 Personal baggage: up to 2,000 per person; single-item limit 300; valuables total limit 400.

5.5 Personal money: up to 300 per person, of which cash is limited to 200.

5.6 Delayed baggage: up to 150 per person after 12 hours.

5.7 Travel delay: 25 per full 12-hour period, up to 250 per person.

5.8 Missed departure: up to 500 per person for additional travel and accommodation.

Section 6 — Claim Conditions

6.1 The 24-hour assistance line must be contacted before any hospital admission, and before any repatriation or curtailment is arranged, or benefit may be limited to what would have been paid had it been contacted.

6.2 Claims must be submitted within 31 days of returning from the trip.

6.3 Theft or loss of baggage or money must be reported to the local police within 24 hours of discovery and a written police report obtained.

6.4 Loss or damage of baggage in the custody of an airline or carrier must be reported to that carrier before leaving the airport and a Property Irregularity Report obtained.

6.5 Cancellation claims require a medical certificate from the treating doctor confirming the patient was unfit to travel, and written confirmation from the travel provider of the non-refundable amount.

6.6 Travel delay claims require written confirmation from the carrier of the scheduled and actual departure times and the reason for the delay.

6.7 Original receipts are required for all items claimed above 50; items without receipts are settled at the insurer's discretion.

6.8 Baggage items are settled at market value with an allowance for wear and tear; items less than 12 months old are settled at replacement cost.

Section 7 — Fraud

7.1 If any claim is fraudulent or exaggerated, or any false document is supplied, all benefit under this policy is forfeited and the policy is cancelled from the date of the fraudulent act.
